

GLENCOE MARATHON GATHERING TERMS & CONDITIONS

Sunday 4th September 2022

By registering to take part in the Glencoe Marathon, Half Marathon or Ronald McDonald House Glasgow 10k you are agreeing to the following conditions of entry and any instructions given to you by the organisers, officials and marshals before, during or after the event.

You must be at least 18 years of age on Sunday 4th September 2022 to take part in the Glencoe Marathon, Half Marathon or Ronald McDonald House Glasgow 10k.

You will pay the Glencoe Marathon, Half Marathon, Ronald McDonald House Glasgow 10k a non-refundable registration fee when registering. The registration fee is per person and varies depending on the distance you are entering (£55 for the Glencoe Marathon and £45 for the Half Marathon and £25 for the Ronald McDonald House Glasgow 10k). Your place is not secured until this fee is received.

A participant can defer their entry to the following year if they are injured prior to the event but only up until 31st August 2022, after this date participants are no longer able to defer their place. Participants who are injured and therefore unable to compete must provide a letter from their doctor which must be submitted to WildFox Events no later than 31st August 2022. Written confirmation of your deferral will then be provided by WildFox Events by email.

If you are unable to participate for any other reason you may transfer your place to another person. If you wish to do this please contact Wild Fox Events. There is a £5 Admin Fee to transfer your place, and transfers must be made by 31st August 2022.

The Glencoe Marathon, Half Marathon and Ronald McDonald House Glasgow 10k will take place unless there is extremely bad weather, or other factors outwith our control in which case the organisers reserve the right to cancel the event, reroute it or stop it on the advice of our hill safety team or other external authority. Entry fees, however, are not refundable nor is the ACTIVE admin fee nor any other costs that you may have incurred prior to the event, for example travel/accommodation expenses.

MEDICAL DISCLAIMER

You are responsible for ensuring that you have the appropriate level of fitness to participate in the Glencoe Marathon, Half Marathon or Ronald McDonald House Glasgow 10k. You are strongly advised to consult a doctor before undertaking any strenuous exercise or training programme, or participating in the event.

To the best of your knowledge you must submit a true and accurate description of your medical history and current condition when you complete the back of your participant number. You must understand that you are taking part in an event in a remote and rural location where there will be a longer medical response time in the event of emergency.

Participants must agree to inform Event Medical Staff of any medical or other condition that might affect their ability to take part in the event.

You are taking part in the Glencoe Marathon/Half Marathon/Ronald McDonald House Glasgow 10k at your own risk and will not hold the organisers WildFox Events and their associates, volunteers, marshals or Event Medical staff responsible in the event of acute illness, injury or death. The organisers (WildFox Events, a company incorporated in Scotland - number 199793, registered offices: 25 Castle Terrace, Edinburgh EH1 2ER ) will have no responsibility for any risk, loss or costs which you incur in connection with the event and you will indemnify the organisers and any persons acting on their behalf for any risk, damages, loss or costs arising as a result of your participation in the event. It is your responsibility to obtain any necessary personal insurance in connection with the Glencoe Marathon/Half Marathon/Ronald McDonald House Glasgow 10k including medical insurance, third party liability insurance and cancellation insurance for any costs incurred by you in connection with your attendance.

In the event of an accident or illness whilst taking part in this event, you give permission for Event Medical staff to initiate medical treatment and to inform your Next of Kin in case of hospitalisation.

Prior to and during the event you will be responsible for your own safety, you will take all reasonable care to ensure the safety of other participants and you will comply promptly with all instructions and guidelines given by the organisers and any persons acting on their behalf. You must not deviate from the official route, which will be marked with signage from start to finish. There will be marshals located on the route and all volunteers and staff involved in the event will be clearly identifiable.

GENERAL

As both Full and Half Marathon routes cross a major road (A82), all participants must follow the event organiser's route directions and requests at all times.

All participants will be given an event identification number at check-in, which must be displayed for identification at all times.

You are responsible for returning any electronic timing device. Missing devices will be charged back to the participant.

You must be aware of the check in procedures at checkpoints, if required. If you retire from the event you must inform the marshals at that checkpoint and call the number on the back of your participant number if retiring between checkpoints. This is particularly important as otherwise we must come looking for you which wastes valuable event resources and emergency services time.

The Glencoe Marathon/Half Marathon/Ronald McDonald House Glasgow 10k are subject to cut-off times which will be decided on the day. It is essential that participants abide by the cut-off time. In the event of severe weather, these cut-off times can be amended for the safety of participants, staff and volunteers.

The following equipment is compulsory and MUST be carried during the event. If you do not carry the equipment we reserve the right to disqualify you.

Compulsory Equipment: Waterproof jacket with a hood, waterproof trousers; suitable trail running type shoes, own water container, hat and gloves; spare warm layer; foil emergency blanket; whistle; mobile phone (fully charged in waterproof case); emergency food; event participant number.

The organisers reserve the right to change this list should it be considered appropriate for participant safety. There will be random, spot compulsory kit inspections and participants not complying with the compulsory kit will be disqualified from the event.

The organisers reserve the right to terminate an individual's participation on health and safety grounds.

All participants enter into the Glencoe Marathon/Half Marathon/ Ronald McDonald House Glasgow 10k of their own will, understanding the arduous nature of the event. As such they must be medically fit to participate and take full responsibility for their own personal health and fitness. Throughout the event, participants will be checked for their suitability to continue on grounds of capability including their equipment and state of health. If any of the marshals and medical staff believe that the safety of the individual will be compromised by their continued participation, they reserve the right to ask that person or persons to stop. If that person or persons continue on the route they will no longer be officially participating in the event and WildFox Events Ltd and associates take no further responsibility for their participation.

In the course of registering and participating in the Glencoe Marathon/Half Marathon/Ronald McDonald House Glasgow 10k we will collect personal data from you. We may process and use the personal data collected for administrative purposes in relation to this event. By selecting a charity or cause to receive your fundraising, you agree that we will share your name, address, e-mail address, telephone number with your selected charity or local cause to allow them to acknowledge receipt of your fundraising and to contact you by letter, e-mail and telephone with information about them and future events organised by them or in which they are involved.
